

BING MUSIC SERIES

In the Stanford Hospital Atrium

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 5, 12:30

THE MARLEY/POHORSKI/BURN JAZZ TRIO — Unique Jazz

The Marley/Pohorski/Burn Jazz Trio came together as like-minded musicians who were searching for something more substantial than playing casual gigs with interchangeable lineups. Their goal was to develop their own repertoire and unique sonic palette and in the process create music which offers audiences something identifiable and distinctive. With a song list that includes fresh takes on old standards, and a sprinkling of original compositions, Stephen Marley (drums) Doug Pohorski (bass) and Terrigal Burn (piano) continue to explore the synergistic possibilities and subtle nuances of trio jazz.

FRIDAY OCTOBER 7, 12:30

BILLY PACKARD — The Music of Italy

Billy got his first mandolin when he was a teenager and began studying Italian music with several senior Italian immigrant mandolin players, truly learning the music form from its source. Joining him is piano great Jack Bowers and bass wizard Steve Larkin. This concert will cover Italian songs, arias, and folk tunes. Ciao!

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 12, 12:30

SABROSITO — Latin Music

“Sabrosito” is centered within the traditions of Folk Mexican, Tex-Mex, and other styles of Latin music. Sabrosito’s tasty arrangements and very distinctive voicing of the instruments entertain all ages and cultures. Their repertoire includes the exciting rhythms of the Cumbia, Ranchera, Bolero, Cha-Cha and Huapango.

FRIDAY OCTOBER 14, 12:30

ALEX EISENBERG & MIYUKI OTANI — Classical Music

Violinist Alex Eisenberg will be joined by pianist Miyuki Otani in a afternoon of classical music with the motto “con espressivo” that could be translated as “with passion.” Beloved classical pieces by Mozart, Tchaikovsky, Debussy and Dvorak will be expertly performed by these two internationally acclaimed musicians.

ALBANY CONSORT — Classical Music

Halloween marks the transition from the light part of the year into the dark part. How better to celebrate than with music that reflects darkness, strangeness and profound sadness? But don't think that this means sparse or depressing music. On the contrary, composers have always been itching to express fully and vigorously any human experience they could find. Works by Vivaldi, Rebel, Tartini, Nan, and Dowland will be presented in this concert.
