Cancer Supportive Care Program

Healing touch is a research-based therapy that uses gentle hand techniques by trained practitioners. It provides relaxation and stress reduction to manage the side effects of chemotherapy and radiation therapy.

Healing Touch is:

- Energy-based healing
- Individual sessions that last 45 minutes
- Treatment tailored to the needs of the individual and given while you are lying, fully clothed, on a massage table or sitting in a chair.

Registration is required.

Days:	Offered on a day, time, and location near you.
Time:	Each session is 1 hour
Location:	Sessions are held in healing studios, spas, etc.
Questions & Registration:	Please call 650.725.9461 or email cscphealingpartners@stanfordhealthcare.org

The Stanford Supportive Care Program provides free classes, workshops, fitness classes, services, and support to all cancer patients regardless of where they receive their care.
