

Enjoy a Live Concert Every Tuesday at Lucile Packard Children's Hospital

All Concerts are held on the LPCH outdoor cafeteria courtyard from 12:00-1:00 pm every Tuesday, June 7 through September 27, 2016.

This Concert Series is made possible by the sponsorship of the Reller Family in honor of Carolyn Wiedemann Reller.

This Month Featuring:

TUESDAY JULY 5, 12:00 PARLEZ VOUS JAZZ

NEW ORLEANS-INSPIRED JAZZ AND MORE!

Rooted in early jazz from the French Quarter of New Orleans, and branching out to Gypsy Jazz, and on into modern day jazz and blues, the band features vocals, jazz violin, banjo, string bass, trombone, clarinet, and more!

TUESDAY JULY 12, 12:00 ED JOHNSON & GUEST

BRAZILIAN-INSPIRED MUSIC

Ed Johnson's mastery of so many different styles, coupled with a passion for harmony vocal and horn arrangements, all factor into a magical blend of vibrant, original contemporary jazz that is winning fans and airplay worldwide. Ed's original music is evocative of Brazilian pop, but unlike anything you've heard before.

TUESDAY JULY 19, 12:00 VISSION LATINA

LATIN MUSIC

Vission Latina will really heat up the Summer when they bring their music to Palo Alto. These virtuoso musicians have all played with some of the finest Latin music performers on the scene and now they come together to share their musical vision – Vission Latina!

TUESDAY JULY 26, 12:00 JOHN WORLEY, JR.

ECLECTIC JAZZ

Flugelhorn Artist John Worley Jr. is adept at a multitude of styles, he has played with many national and international artists in Canada, Europe, Central and North America. Combining great technique with potent lyricism, Worley has created a unique sound. His music touches on all corners of the Americas, riding a world chart of bop, straight-ahead jazz, tango, Afro-Cuban and more.
