

Medication Safety: Anticoagulation Therapy

Reduce harm related to Anticoagulation Therapy

- Individualized treatment plans, baseline lab work, and monitoring procedures
- Baseline and current INR documented in medical record
- Use only premixed infusions and oral unit dose products
- Use resources to manage potential food/drug interactions for patients on warfarin
- Patient and family education on follow-up monitoring, compliance, diet and potential adverse drugs reactions

STANFORD
HOSPITAL & CLINICS

Stanford University Medical Center

Lucile Packard
Children's Hospital
AT STANFORD

