Informed Consent

The informed consent discussion (including reviewing of the risks, benefits and alternatives of the procedure or surgery) must be documented in the medical record.

The consent form must be completed and include the specific procedure/surgery to be performed and the patient’s signature, date and time.

Reference: Informed Consent Policy

Questions? Contact ARL@Stanfordhealthcare.org