

EverReady Thursday - Message of the Week

11/21/2019

Means of Egress

Objects stored in the Means of Egress, such as a corridor or hallway, restrict staff and patient movement in both normal and emergency situations. Corridor clutter could lead to possible injuries and reduced evacuation of patients during an emergency situation. Remove items stored in the means of egress.

Questions? Contact ARL@Stanfordhealthcare.org