Neuroscience Supportive Care Program

Calendar of Services
January–June 2019

stanfordhealthcare.org/nscp
The Neuroscience Supportive Care Program follows the Stanford Health Care standard of providing not only state-of-the-art medical care, but also the highest quality of patient care. Our vision is to improve the quality of life for our patients and their caregivers living with, through, and beyond disease.

These free classes are open to all neuroscience patients regardless of where they receive their care.

A Matter of Balance

Every Thursday for 8 weeks
1/17, 1/24, 1/31, 2/7 *2/14, 2/21, 2/28, 3/8
(Class on 2/14 will take place in the Basement, Room 0511)

10:00am - 12:00pm

Stanford Neuroscience Health Center
213 Quarry Road, Wellness Room 1511
Palo Alto, CA 94304

A Matter of Balance is an evidence-based program for older adults. 10 – 12 older adults meet for a two hour session every week for 8 weeks. Through facilitated discussions, group activities and exercise, older adults learn strategies to help reduce fear of falling and fall risks.

To enroll or for more information, call 650.724.9369.

Stepping On

An evidence-based program developed in Australia, Stepping On, has been shown to decrease falls by 31%. Older adults meet in a group setting for two hours once a week for seven weeks. Sessions include facilitated discussions and guest speakers, including a physical therapist, pharmacist, and vision specialist. Exercises are taught and practiced each week. A home visit is offered at the end of the seven weeks, and participants come together for a “booster session” three months later.

To enroll in Stepping On, contact Avenidas in Palo Alto at 650.289.5400.

Driving Rehabilitation

March 21 | 10:30am–11:30am

Stanford Neuroscience Health Center
213 Quarry Road, Basement -Room 0511
Palo Alto, CA 94304

This is an informative driving rehabilitation session which will discuss requirements by the DMV for those who have had a change in medical status, suspended license, or who have let their license expire. Resources will be available including those for individuals who may be interested in modified hand controls and ideas about wheelchair vans.

Registration required. To register or for more information, call 650.721.8500.

Farewell to Falls

This free, home-based fall prevention program sends an occupational therapist to the home to look at the multi-faceted risk factors associated with falls. The therapist assesses strength and balance, and a home safety evaluation with recommendations is completed. Medications are reviewed by a Stanford Health Care pharmacist, home exercises are recommended, and information and education on other risk factors are provided.

This program offers two visits, and follow-up phone calls are made monthly. After one year, the occupational therapist returns to the home for a third visit and re-evaluation. Self-referrals are welcome. To enroll or for more information, call 650.724.9369.
