You have the right to request restrictions on the ways in which Stanford Health Care and Stanford Children’s Health (the Hospital) use and disclose your personal health information. The Hospital is not required to agree to your request. If the Hospital agrees to your request, then we will be bound by the restriction unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment or to comply with the law.

☐ The information I wish to restrict is:________________________________________

☐ I want the restriction to apply to the following person / entity (e.g. a spouse):____________________

The Hospital will review your request and provide you with a written response. Depending upon the nature of your request, it may take several days to respond. Until your request has been accepted, the Hospital will use and disclose your health information in a manner consistent with our Notice of Privacy Practices and applicable law.

Examples of restriction requests that the Hospital cannot honor:

• Requests to restrict medical students or residents from accessing your medical information.

• Requests restricting the Hospital from giving your name to an insurance company that will be asked to pay a portion of your bill.

• Requests restricting the Hospital from reporting your identity and condition to an agency or organization where the Hospital is required by law to do so.
